U. N. Deals Soviet Double Defeat By Voting Action on Greece, Korea

U. S. PROPOSALS ARE CARRIED BY HEAVY MARGINS

Peace Body to Consider
New Veto-Free Agency;
Vishinsky Orates in Vain

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Heavy United Nations majorities steam-rollered Russian opposition today and approved American proposals to deal with Greek and Korean crises and consider creation of a new veto-free security agency.

Over the persistent objection of Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky, the 55-nation assembly also approved an American-supported Argentine proposal that it debate and suggest revision of the new Italian peace treaty. This issue brought a split among the Western powers as well as between them and Russia.

The six votes of the Slav bloc held solid in the minority throughout on all East-West issues.

Russia and the United States showed upon the same side of the voting on only one issue—creation of a special 55-nation committee on Palestine—and on this the Arab bloc was an adamant minority in opposition.

The air of contest and bitter controversy which marked the assembly's week-long general debate prevailed throughout the voting on 61-item agenda. Finally this was adopted without change from the form in which it had been submitted to the assembly by the 14-nation steering committee.

As the debate closed and discussion of the agenda opened Secretary General Trygve Lie made an impassioned plea for harmony and compromise among the battling great powers.

Here is the way the voting went today:

On American proposal that the General Assembly try to restore Korean independence in view of the deadlock between the United States and Russia — for 41, against 6, not voting 7.

On the Greek Balkan row — for 38, against 6, not voting 9.

On a Yugoslav proposal to switch from the legal committee to the political committee a proposed resolution on returning war criminals to their homelands — for 8, against 33, not voting 4.

On a proposal made by Lie to seek a special committee to find a solution of the Palestine committee — for 29, against 11, not voting 6.

In the debate which preceded voting on the agenda Vishinsky blasted the Argentine proposal for revision of the Italian treaty.

In this connection he accused the

The festival is prescribed in the Book of Leviticus. Dr. Emil Schorsch, rabbi, explained. The concluding verse of the 15th chapter says, "And thus shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year."

During today's service Dr. Schorsch will speak on "The Drama of Judaism," while the choir will be led by the Rev. H. G. Blatt, cantor.

A special youth service will be held in the synagogue at noon today, conducted by Sidney, Alvin and Herbert Weiss, under the supervision of Mrs. Emanuel Berman.

U. S., Britain Rap Bulgaria In Hanging of Party Leader

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—The United States accused Bulgaria today of violating "elementary principles of justice and the rights of man" in hanging Nikola Petkov, a leading foe of its Communist-controlled government.

The 54-year-old head of the Agrarian party was executed this morning in a Sofia prison on charges that he plotted against Prime Minister Georgi Dimitroff's government.

The State department said in a formal statement that his trial and conviction was a "travesty on justice." It said the trial was only one of "a series of measures undertaken by the Communist-dominated fatherland front government to remove from the Bulgarian scene all save a purely nominal opposition and to consolidate, despite its professions to the contrary, a totalitarian form of government."

This denunciation, read to reporters by a State department official, underlined again basic differences repeatedly springing up between the United States and Russia and her satellites over Communist tactics to seize and cement control over central European governments.

There were no immediate signs whether the United States would join Britain in a formal diplomatic protest of Petkov's hanging or in some form of retaliatory measures. Time after time, in appeals both to Russia and Bulgaria, this country and Britain tried to save Petkov. They took the position that the campaign to eliminate opposition to the Bulgarian regime broke the Yalta agreement with Russia.

This pact provided that postwar governments of former Axis partners must be freely chosen and represent all democratic elements. But every appeal was rejected. Russia, in effect, told the U. S. and Britain to mind their own business and not interfere in Bulgaria's internal affairs.

Officials of the Graphic Arts league made no immediate comment.

SEATTLE, Sept. 23 (AP)—Sen. Robert Taft (R-Ohio) suffered a badly crushed left hand when the driver of his car slammed the door on it in the confusion of a victorious and tumultuous reception here late today.

Morris Plummer, member of the reception committee, said the accident occurred after something was tossed at the car. Plummer said it was "an egg or a tomato or something."

A boisterous crowd bearing placards was massed before the station when Senator and Mrs. Taft arrived here from Reno, Nev., to make a major speech tonight on the labor issue as part of his Western presidential sounding trip.

Taft's aides said the senator's hand was badly torn across the palms and fingers and that the wound might require several stitches.

They said, pending a more thorough examination, that apparently no bones were broken.

Plummer's version of the accident was:

"Something was thrown into the car. I don't exactly know what it was. The driver stepped out to flick it out and when he stepped back in he closed the door on the senator's hand. It was purely an accident."

A roaring chorus of boos greeted the Taft party when it emerged from the train shed. This was hysterical, however, with cheers and handclapping from those greeting the Republican leader.

Autumn Given Chilly Welcome

Summer gave Autumn a bitter welcome yesterday, as an extremely chilly temperature of 42 degrees hit Pottstown in the morning, and a high of only 58 degrees featured the first day of Fall, which began at 5 p. m.

Yesterday's unusual cold—it was only eight degrees warmer than the coldest Sept. 23 on record, "back in 1904"—was typical of the changing weather of the past three months.

July was frequently rainy and rather cool, but August blew in with a blast of hot, humid air that hung on generally throughout that uncomfortable month.

The first two weeks of September set a heat record that was beat only by the torrid September of 1931, while the past few days have been more seasonably cool.

On the average, the humidity this summer was 72 percent, three percent more than normal, while the average temperature was 72.9

Nation's Food Prices Ebb Slightly;
Wheat Increases on Grain Market

By The Associated Press

The high cost of living wavered somewhat below its record altitude mark yesterday, but no one said with certainty whether it was weakening or getting its second wind.

Only wheat made substantial gains in trading on the nation's commodity markets, closing 3 to 4 1/2 cents higher than Monday and continuing its upward trend to make up past week's reductions of up to 38 cents a bushel.

Prices of corn, oats, sugar, eggs and livestock declined slightly. The Associated Press wholesale price index of 35 commodities edged downward a trifle to 190.33 compared with 190.81 for Monday. The price index was 4.98 points below the recent all time high of 195.31.

One observer expressed an optimistic view of the price situation in department store lines, telling Congressional price investigators that there are many indications that cost rises of many items have been checked.

For YMCA Drive Dinner

In a determined campaign to reach a goal of 2000 members, the YMCA roll call workers are aiming for the halfway point by the time of their dinner meeting at 6:15 o'clock tonight in the "Y" auditorium.

William H. Curtiss, general chairman, urged all team members and captains to be present to give their reports, and Victor P. Patterson, general secretary of the YMCA, asked for public support for the benefit of Pottstown's youth.

The 120 men who are working to fill the membership quota had obtained 448 members by yesterday, with 552 more to go in order to meet the goal of 1000 members by tonight.

LOCAL GROCERS PREDICT DIP IN HIGH FOOD COSTS

Sharp Cut in Retail
Buying Cited as Hope
For Price Slice Soon

By FRED SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

With food prices remaining high except for a slight dip in butter and eggs, Pottstown grocers have joined their customers in protesting the situation.

Most of them believe the drop on the wholesale markets, especially grain, will be reflected in local stores within a week or two, but they are punning their hopes for substantial reductions on the recent sharp drop in demand at the retail level.

"I wish they'd all stop buying," one grocer said last night. He explained that customers just aren't buying as much, particularly meats and butter, and that he has to hold his profit margin abnormally low to sell even a little of the high-priced commodities.

Soon, he opined, wholesalers would have to cut prices sharply or lose money through spoilage.

"I'm not selling much butter, and I don't care," said another grocer retailer. He said he was paying 88 cents a pound and selling it for 91 cents—just about enough he explained, to split even.

"We're ready to sell out," said a grocer's wife half seriously. Customers "are always grumping and arguing with us." They all want to know what the cheapest meat is, she added, and when she tells them it's beef bologna at 13 cents a quarter pound, it's still too expensive. She said business was "awful."

Most grocers reported a two or three cent drop in the price of butter, and one grocer said his wholesaler had promised a substantial reduction by the end of the week.

Eggs were one to three cents lower in many stores, but grocers warned against hopes of further drops, explaining that in the fall, supply slackens because the older hens are molting while the chicks aren't ready for laying.

Meat prices have been holding steady in all stores reported, and no major reductions were expected before next week. Prices of fresh fruits and vegetables have dropped off somewhat, and lettuce has fallen in two stores from about 23 cents to about 15 cents. But now that local gardens are exhausted, grocers expect an increase in local demand and the end of price reductions in these items.

Relief Fund Plea Brings Response

Quick public response came to yesterday's plea for contributions to The Mercury Relief Fund.

Minna B. Kinckiner, always one of the first contributors to the fund, made the initial donation. Her check was for $10.

The appeal was made for another year of activity.

Capt. Meral Cox, of the Salvation Army, reported that $1009.12 was spent in the past 12 months for relief. This included purchases of food and clothing for the underprivileged.

The Relief Fund will welcome checks and cash contributions. Bottles for deposits have been placed in the lobby of The Mercury. Checks should be made payable to The Mercury Relief Fund.

Survey Is Proposed To Ease Zoning Law

By JOHN K. BINDER
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Plans for a re-survey of Pottstown so that provisions of the zoning ordinance may be made more flexible to meet the increasing housing and business needs of the community were discussed last night by members of the zoning and planning commission, the zoning board of adjustment, borough council and other borough officials.

The meeting was held at borough hall with Burgers William A. Griffith opening the meeting. Chairman Horace Y. Sedel, of the zoning commission, stressed the need of changes if the demand for housing and better servicing of the community is to be met. He agreed that changes are necessary to provide for the rapid increase in the borough's population.

He proposed that borough council support a move to have the commission make a comprehensive study of conditions in conjunction with a group of advisers representing varied business interests of the community. The board of advisors has not yet been selected, he said.

Chairman Jay H. Rinehart, of the zoning board of adjustment, told this reporter that the engineers preparing the zoning map in which there are large areas designated as

R-1—limited to single homes—acted in that manner because it is easier to change the classification downward than it is upward.

It was admitted at the meeting that some of the areas appear to be classified too high and the result is interference with the erection of homes which can be financed by workers of limited means. More business places and industrial sites are needed, it was pointed out.

Borough Solicitor C. Edmund Wells said the comprehensive survey would be done in a careful manner. He pointed out that borough council already has made a change on King street, east of Charlotte, to Adams. A change in the Sixth ward also is imminent.

The presence of members of borough council at the meeting was explained by President C. Roy Bush. He emphasized that prompt action is needed and.

'Financial Wizard' Paroled, Resides in Coventryville

Hugh Monjar, once referred to as the "financial wizard of Ardmore," who was sentenced to five years imprisonment and fined $49,000 in 1943, was released on parole from the Federal prison at Lewisburg the past May 1 and is now living at Creek road, Coventryville, it was learned yesterday.

Authorities who declined to be named said Monjar had paid the fine prior to his parole.

Monjar was convicted, along with his wife and three other national officers of the Mantle club, in May, 1943, on charges of conspiracy to cheat and defraud and fraudulent conversion. The trial was held at Wilmington, Del.

They began serving sentence in July of that year.

Monjar was sentenced to five years and fined $49,000, his wife, Josephine, 18 months and a $10,000 fine, and the others—Abraham J. Cook, John Fenton Jones and Clement O. Drew, all of Wilmington, Del.—three year jail sentences and $500 fines each.

Monjar founded the Mantle club in 1928 "to encourage a true feeling of fellowship, to foster and cultivate the social, education and business relationship of members; to improve their standards of honor, ethics, efficiency, and productivity." He served as its president.

The club claimed a membership of 30,000 throughout the nation.

The government charged at the trial that Monjar, his wife, and the three other officers received $1,340,000 in unsecured, non-interest personal loans from club members "in the interest of success and fellowship" from 1928 to 1943.

Members, in return, received

Stocks Take Sharp Drop During Selling Wave

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Heavy last-hour selling in the stock market today drove leading issues downward $1 to more than $2 a share.

Hardest hit were stocks of major industrial companies such as U. S. Steel corporation, General Motors corporation, International Paper company, and American Woolen company.

Surprised by the suddenness of the selling attack, the market showed little recuperative power and final prices were at or near the low levels for the day. For a brief period the ticker tape ran behind actual transactions.

Couple Celebrates Wedding Anniversary By Winning Archery Championships

What is perhaps the most unique celebration of a wedding anniversary in Berks county occurred on Sunday at Reading Archery club when Mrs. and Mrs. Arnold Leisenberger, well-known Pennsylvania archers, won the men's and women's championships of Reading and Berks county on the day that also marked their wedding anniversary.

Leisenberger, better known in Boyertown and surrounding communities as "Legs," won the men's championship when he scored 1330 in the match. He achieved the dream of all archers when he shot six golds at 40 yards in what was described as a really exceptional performance.

Mrs. Leisenberger won the women's division crown with a score of 1152. Both matches were Double Americans.

Kosie Reifsnider, of Rhoads avenue, Boyertown, finished second in the women's division with a score of 806, while her father, Walter Reifsnider, finished third in the men's division, finishing behind Leisenberger in the top spot and Bernie Roehse, of Reading, who was runner-up. The shoot was an all-day affair.

The Leisenbergers have an increasingly-impressive record of wins collected the past summer. Mrs. Leisenberger placed fifth in the state championship meet in York on Labor day weekend and at the same competition she was a member of the team which won the state team championship for women. At Phillipsburg, N. J., she won the Minsi conference championship for women. At the same meet, Leisenberger was sixth in the men's division in a field of 19 archers. Reifsnider and his daughter were target winners on that day.

Mrs. Leisenberger recently won the Eastern City Club championship for women at Easton and the Bethlehem City club championship in the same division. Leisenberger placed second in the Eastern match.

Mrs. Leisenberger shot six golds at 40 yards at the double American meet in Bethlehem.

District Governor Addresses Rotarians

"Education is not a destination. It is a journey, and we are always on our way."

So said Dr. Charles W. Swope, district governor of Rotary International and president of State Teachers college, West Chester, in an address before Rotary club of Boyertown in Boyertown Inn.

After extending official greetings to the local Rotarians, Dr. Swope launched into a discussion of four fundamentals for modern living. They were tolerance, co-operation, kindness and generosity, he said.

The college president stressed the importance of the meeting of the United Nations General Assembly in New York City. It is one of the biggest events to occupy the stage of current developments, he told Rotarians and their guests.

The district official warned that the lack of food, crops and clothing made Europe fertile ground for the Communist doctrine which, he said, feeds on misery and poverty.

Before the dinner meeting Dr. Swope met with Ralph C. Bodv, club president, and Eugene Schaeffer, secretary. Following the dinner and his address he met with the club assembly which consists of local officers, directors and committee chairmen.

Local officials were enthusiastic about club attendance and the reception accorded Dr. Swope.

'Automatic Airplane' Awaits Return Trip

BRIZE NORTON, England, Sept. 23 (AP)—Col. James M. Gillespie said today the U. S. Army Air Forces' "automatic airplane" may try another record run in about two weeks flying homeward via the Azores.

Gillespie, commander of the four-engine Skymaster that flew the Atlantic and landed in England without a pilot's hand at the controls, was scheduled to return Oct. 6. The plane set a record in its 2400-mile flight to a Royal Air Force field here yesterday controlled only by a complicated "electric brain."

Gillespie said he hoped to return by the longer Azores route and was awaiting instructions from Washington as to whether another test of the Skymaster's trail-blazing control gadgets would be conducted.

Jap Anti-Boat Mines Found on Florida Shore

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 23 (AP)—Six live Japanese anti-boat mines were washed up on the shore near Vero Beach, Fla., the Seventh Coast Guard district reported today.

Coast Guard officers said the mines, presumably laid by a Jap submarine during the early part of the war, apparently were brought up from the bottom of the Atlantic ocean during a turbulence in the water caused by the recent hurricane.

The mines were described as being in a "fully armed" condition. They were turned over to the Navy mine disposal officer of the Seventh Naval District, Jacksonville.

here's help for beat-up budgets
Had enough of high prices? Why sit back and pay—pay—pay? We think that there is one way you can really make a savings on the cost of heating your house. When it comes to quality heating, the General Electric oil-fired boiler really has the stuff. Provides year 'round domestic hot water, too. But harken to this: G.E. operates on a fuel rate so low that it can make a weighty difference in the fuel budget. Don't just take our word for it—compare costs with our FREE HEAT-SURVEY. Maybe you'll be surprised at what you now pay for heating, compared to the economy of a General Electric. If our survey turns up real savings, it won't surprise us, because, in the past—

BPW Hears Talk By John B. Price; October Plans Made

"Dancing is as old as the human race," said Mr. John B. Price of the Price Studio of Dancing and guest speaker of the Business and Professional Women's club last night at a meeting at the Clover Leaf restaurant.

Choosing the topic "Dancing — the First Art," Mr. Price quoted a French proverb, "What can be said can be sung and what can't be sung can be danced."

Mr. Price was a student of Ruth St. Denis and he spoke of the Egyptian dancers and costumes and continued to discuss the formation and growth of the ballet which was followed by the explanation of the Greek and Roman dances. He spoke at length on the Russian dances, ballets and the noted artists. Mr. Price ended his talk by telling of an experience of when he toured with a group of 28 Russians that could not speak English.

Mrs. Velma Beigen, president, presided over the business meeting and the following invitations from other BPW clubs were announced:

Dr. John W. Laird Addresses Club; Soloist Heard

"What Is Right With America" was the seldom-heard topic of a talk last night by Dr. John Wesley Laird when he addressed the Pottstown Woman's club at Laura's hall.

Dr. Laird is a former president of Albion college, Michigan; a professor of philosophy and social science at Temple university, and he has occupied prominent pastorates in metropolitan churches. He named the following as "what is right with America":

"Youth in America is essentially right and I realize I am sticking out my chin," he said and explained that "there never was a generation so challenged by events brought on by older people. Give youth a chance for a home, a place to bring up children, and watch them."

"Our institutions are right the home, school and church."

"The democratic state, in spite of its faults, is essentially right."

"Our sense of value is essentially right. The important thing is not where we come from, out where we are going."

Dr. Laird added to his talk by stressing the point, "What counts in America is that each individual have the strength to lift their own weight and then lift others. We should, in our clubs, schools and churches, stress what is right with America. As goes America in the next ten years, so goes the world."

The solvency of American is keeping the world from bankruptcy."

Mrs. Florence A. Erb, president, presided over the business meeting at which time it was announced that the Southeastern district meeting will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the Benjamin Franklin hotel, Philadelphia, and the Book Review club will meet at the home of Mrs. Erb, 369 Spruce street, Wednesday, Oct. 15, at which time Mrs. John Vincent will review.

Advice to the Lovelorn Younger Generation Speaks Forth

LESLIE B., who is 18 and soon to graduate from high school, is struggling with a problem that seems increasingly to confront the younger generation. While it is one of the most difficult problems that young people have to solve, the very fact that it presents itself so much more frequently these days than it did in former years is a hopeful sign of the times, for it means that the most thoughtful boys and girls of today are trying to work their way toward a happier tomorrow.

This problem, which she is trying to solve and which is such a very significant one, she explains as follows:

"I have known D since I was a child and we always liked one another and got along very well together. As we grew older, our relations with each other changed, too, and now we find that we like each other in a different way. I go out with him a lot and he is very sweet to me. I have known quite a few boys, but none as polite and as nice as D. It is not that we are serious about each other — at least not yet — for we both plan careers, but we want to remain friends and maybe some day, when we are older, we may find we are in love."

And now here's the crux of the problem:

"My parents are against our being friends now that we are older, for D is of a different nationality and religion from mine. His parents like me and never said anything against my religion or nationality, and I don't like my parents to find fault with him just because of this difference. My two cousins had the same trouble that I am having now. The fell in love with girls of different religions and when they wanted to get married every one said it wouldn't work out. Both of them have been married two years now and are parents. I think they are the happiest-married in the whole family."

"Maybe I am wrong, but D and I are the future generation, and I think peace with other nations will only come when we learn to respect one another on equal terms, no matter what our faith or race may be. Do you think I am right in this matter between D and myself and what is your advice to us both?"

I think, Leslie, that you are very right indeed, and I hope you will be able to spread that very fine viewpoint of yours, not only in your own family, but among all the young people with whom you come in contact. If you make it part of your purpose in life invariably to act in accordance with the philosophy you have expressed, you will make an important contribution to the cause of tolerance.

It is perfectly natural for your parents to have doubts about the wisdom of marriage between two young people whose fundamental training has been along very different lines, for such a situation does present its own peculiar difficulties. Such difficulties are not by any means insuperable, however, and you yourself are particularly fortunate in having two examples in your own family of successful marriage under just these circumstances.

Some of your parents' doubts, these very helpful suggestions along these lines, if and when you and D decide you would like to marry.

For the time being, try to understand your parents' viewpoint, but, at the same time, stick quietly to your own way of thinking in this matter. If you handle things tactfully, it is quite likely that you can win them over in the end.

Materials Arriving For Traffic Lights

Materials for the four new traffic lights which will be installed at four intersections in Pottstown now are arriving at borough hall, Borough Manager Dow I. Sears announced yesterday.

Sears said the materials are coming through slowly, but approximately at the time delivery was promised.

The pedestals for the lights have not arrived yet, but are expected shortly. Erection of the lights will begin when they are received, he added.

PIRATE OWNERS BEGIN DECIDING HERMAN'S FATE

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23 (P)—The surgeons began probing the Pittsburgh Pirate ills today but temporarily kept mum on whether amputation of Manager Bill Herman from the payroll will be deemed necessary to effect a cure.

The men who must decide to wield the knife or give Herman a chance to finish his two-year contract are the Bucco owners, gathered here today for a week-long diagnosis. They already have spent more than a million dollars in an unsuccessful effort to improve the standing of the seventh-place club they took over last year.

Club President Frank E. McKinney said:

"There's no indication of Herman's status being in jeopardy until a full examination of the causes for the club's poor showing is made. Then, wherever the chips fall, there's where they will lie."

He reiterated his recent announcement that he was "bitterly disappointed" in the Bucco's seventh place position but added:

"We didn't expect a pennant winner or a first division club this year. We served warning (to the public) that it would require three or four years to rebuild. You can't build a ball club overnight."

The primary order of business in the current meeting is a review of the farm system, McKinney said, indicating that Herman's case is only incidental.

"I'll talk to Billy sometime during the week," he said.

Brooklyn Dodgers Celebrate Pennant Victory by Beating Giants; Robinson Honored

BROOKLYN, Sept. 23 (P)—Brooklyn celebrated its newly-climbed National league championship before the home folks today, clubbing the New York Giants, 6-1, in Jackie Robinson Day. St. Louis had eliminated itself from any mathematical chance last night by bowing to Chicago.

With the pressure off, the Dodgers had little trouble snapping their three-game losing streak as Joe Hatten warmed up in impressive style with a five-inning stint during which he allowed only three hits including Bobby Thomson's first-inning homer, his 28th, running the Giants' consecutive game homer streak to 19. Dan Bankhead finished up the game for the Brooks.

Robinson, who was given a new automobile, a television set, $500 watch, an inter-carrier good will plaque and cash gifts before the game, went hitless in two trips before he was replaced by Ed Stevens, a rookie from Montreal. In fact Manager Burt Shotton tossed his reserves into action midway in the game and gave catcher Bruce Edwards and Dixie Walker a complete rest.

URSINUS ELEVEN PREPARING FOR DREXEL TUSSLE

During the past week and a half, Kurt Wieneke has shown the 47 football candidates at Ursinus college the reason why he has a reputation for producing championship grid teams.

Never before have Ursinus college griders been put through such hard workouts in preseason practice. Wieneke is well noted for his hard practices and Ursinus griders are now getting a taste of them.

Wieneke has been holding two practice sessions a day, a three-hour workout in the morning and the same in the afternoon. Today will be the final day for two sessions for school begins tomorrow and practice will be cut to afternoons only.

The Bears still have a week and a half of practice ahead before taking the gridiron for the season's opener against Drexel on the latter's field Oct. 4.

Back from the 1946 squad are some 21 experienced football players. Among them are Bill Miksch, Andy Balm, Carl Drobeck, Ron Landis, Dick Clark and Dick Reed. All have football experience and should fit into Wieneke's plans perfectly.

Don Young of Catasauqua and George Kennedy of Norristown, have been outstanding in practice thus far, but the team as a whole has also looked good and 1947 may be a big year at the Collegeville school.

After the opener on Oct. 4, the Bears will meet Haverford at home the following week and then will travel for a game with Moravian on Oct. 17. Swarthmore will follow on Oct. 25 and that tussle is scheduled to be played at Swarthmore. PMC will come to Collegeville to meet the Bears on Nov. 1 before Wieneke again takes his boys on the road to meet Juniata on Nov. 8. The season closes with Franklin and Marshall at Collegeville on Nov. 15.

The Ursinus campus has been occupied by girls as well as boys the past week. For the first time in the history of the school has the girls hockey team held preseason practice. Some 35 girls reported for the first workout to Coaches Eleanor Snell and Natalie Hogeland and are now practicing daily for the first game of the season. The Ursinus girls will play a 13-game schedule this fall.

Redlegs Drop 7-2 Decision To Chicago Foe

CINCINNATI, Sept. 23 (P)—Scoring all their runs in the fourth inning, the Chicago White Sox defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 7-2, before 1311 fans here today as Hank Wertz turned in a six-hitter for his sixth victory of the year. Cincinnati needs one victory to clinch fifth place in the standings.

Bill Nicholson started off the Cubs' seven-hit spurge in the fourth with his 25th homer of the year into the right field bleachers. Andy Pafko drove in three runs with a base cleaning double to center.

The losing pitcher was Johnny Vander Meer, whose three-game winning streak was snapped as the Cubs pounded him for 12 hits in 3 1/3 innings he toiled. The Cubs finished with a total of 17 safeties.

Cardinals Win Over Pittsburgh; Kiner Blasts 51st Homer

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23 (P)—Ralph Kiner, slugging Pittsburgh outfielder, got his 51st home run of the year tonight but it wasn't enough to save the Pirates from another defeat as the second-place St. Louis Cardinals whipped them, 8 to 4, before a chilled gathering of 10,330.

Trojans Face Team With Experience In Season's Opener

Pottstown football fans who in the past thought Upper Merion was a setup for the Trojans will be in for a surprise when the two teams meet in the season's opener on Franklin Field at 8 o'clock.

Upper Merion's Spartans will not be a pushover for Coach Heber T. Meyers' Trojans this year. The Spartans dropped their opener by a 31-6 score to Ambler this past Friday night, but still the Upper Merion squad is not made up of weaklings. In fact there are 10 freshmen on this year's team at Upper Merion and all have had a lot of football experience.

Another factor which makes Upper Merion a better team this year is the new coach, Tom Campion, former Bristol High mentor, has succeeded John Yohe as coach of the Spartans and has built a team at Upper Merion which he will be proud of by the time the close of the season comes.

Kenny Davis, Zeke Ostroski, Jack Murray and Paul McKernan, four backfield men who are capable of doing great ball handling and running, are back for another year and gave the Trojans a little trouble the past year on Franklin Field. One thing the Spartans lack is good reserve strength. It is true that 10 lettermen are back, but once the starting eleven is out of the game, there isn't much good football material which can be put on the field.

Meyers revealed yesterday that Upper Merion will be no pushover and that he is working his Trojans just as hard for this game as he would for any other game. He rates McKernan as a good back and said that he may give the Trojans trouble Friday night.

Defensive work was the main topic of yesterday's practice on Franklin Field. Meyers had the backs and centers working on pass defense and Coach Morrell Grigg has his linemen working on line defense and protection for a passer. Some of the backs were also practicing punting while others were practicing kickoffs. The Trojans will hold their final hard workout this afternoon and will taper off to a light practice tomorrow afternoon.

Lions Members See Film on Program To Cure Alcoholics

Members of the Pottstown Lions club saw a film last night depicting the workings of Alcoholics Anonymous, at a meeting held in the Elks' home.

Thomas Storm, public relations director for the Pottstown plant of the Firestone Tire and Rubber company, showed the movie to 58 members of the club.

The film started with a chronic drinker who decided to appeal to Alcoholics Anonymous. The first step, it was emphasized, was that the drinker sincerely want to be cured.

The patient first was taken to a hospital, where he received vitamin injections and a carefully adjusted diet to build up his system.

At all times during his course of treatment, two members of Alcoholics Anonymous both cured of the disease, stayed with him for moral support.

The patient was released to his home, where the cure consisted primarily of faith, hope, and increased confidence in his self-control.

With the aid of his family and friends, it was demonstrated, a cure was made possible.

Optimists Hear Committee Reports

A lengthy business meeting which featured reports from all committees highlighted last night's meeting of the Pottstown Optimist club, held in the Elks' home.

Elwood R. Angstadt reported on the Second district meeting held in Philadelphia.

It was announced that the local club would participate in the 11th annual International Optimist week, which will be celebrated from Oct. 5-11. No definite plans for the celebration were announced.

Dr. A. A. Gallo, president, was in charge of the meeting. Twenty-five members were present.

What are they pointing to?

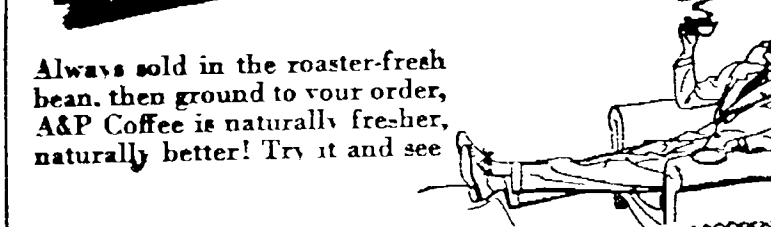

When they opened ThriftiCheck accounts at this bank, they were surprised and delighted with one special feature—we imprinted their names on every ThriftiCheck.
